How to Play BRIDGE

Series 1927-28 by Wynne Ferguson

It is really surprising what simple mistakes often are made by players who think they play a pretty fair game.

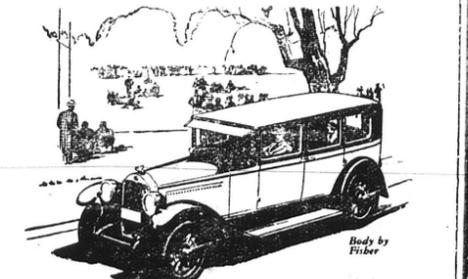

ARTICLE No. 1 Hearts-K, 6, 3 Clubs-J, 4 Diamonds-K, 7, 6, 3, 2 Spades-J, 10, 8

Z dealt, bid one spade, A and Y passed and B bid two hearts. Z bid two spades, all passed and A opened the ten of hearts.

On the other hand, if Z had played his finesse correctly he would have scored four odd and game, provided, of course, that he had played the king of hearts at trick one.

Suppose, however, that Z at trick one takes the spade finesse before the club finesse. It will win, of course, but how can he get Y's hand in again to make the club finesse?

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

There's no "time out" for Buick

The referee's whistle shrills... "time out!"... The game halts, pending a player's return to the "line-up".

One More Job for the Caddy

Mary Brian, Left, and Marietta Miller Provide New Thrill for Golf Enthusiasts

When Mary Brian and Marietta Miller, famous motion picture players, recently appeared upon one of the golf courses outside Los Angeles, followed by a caddy pushing a tea wagon upon which was a radio receiver and speaker, other players stopped their game and gazed at the procession in astonishment.

However, when they heard the music being wafted across the course they smiled their appreciation, and for the rest of the afternoon the two screen players were followed by a bevy of players who, too enjoyed the novelty of golfing to music.

Wife Savers

TASTY DISHES

A cupful or two of any well cooked and seasoned meat, may, with a little thought, be made into most tasty food.

Spanish Chicken—Make a sauce of one tablespoonful of butter and two of flour with two cupfuls of chicken broth or water with a teaspoonful of extract of beef.

Deviled Chicken—Make a sauce of salt, pepper, dry mustard, paprika and grated lemon peel with a little of the juice of the lemon, Worcestershire sauce, and a few drops of tabasco.

Soup Meat—Do not throw away soup meat. Chop it, add seasonings of various sorts and use it to stuff peppers, onions or tomatoes.

Chicken Goulash.—Cut into dice two medium sized uncooked potatoes. Put into a frying pan two tablespoonfuls of olive oil and when hot, add the diced potatoes, then add a cupful of boiling water, a crushed clove of garlic, a cupful of cooked chicken and salt to taste. Cover and cook until the potatoes are done, stirring frequently.

Shepherd's Pie—Place seasoned chopped meat in a small bread pan and cover with seasoned mashed potatoes. Brush with egg and bake until well heated through.
